

PRODUCT BRIEF

Polytel[®] Access Point Terminal (APT)

FEATURES

- Efficient new design with new features
Low price and usability for increased capability
- No patient intervention needed to operate
No buttons to forget to push, encouraging compliance
- Store and Forward of 1MB or continuous mode
Reliable transfer of intermittent data and sufficient space for new features
- Wireless communication range – 300 feet
Standardized product, range adequate for most applications like homes and clinics
- Retains data in flash memory
No data loss due to power outages
- Small and lightweight
Can be placed anywhere in the home or clinic, with optional wall mount
- Uses common modem technology
Connects to all public telephone systems (PSTN)
- Automatically retries failed transmissions
Recovers from phone line outages and line-in-use
- APT system is customizable
Parameters can be changed to meet customer needs
- APT has bi-directional capability
Transmission from or to measuring device is possible
- APT Internet communication can be set up manually by provider
- APT Internet communication can be set up automatically
Our ISP/Initialization Server allows centralized management of devices
- Polymap's ISP/Initialization Service is:
Simple - Connect to the next user without reconfiguration
Cost effective - Highly scalable solution with no 800 #'s or modems required at monitoring location

